A Republican who passed through the Lincoln era and wintessed the infamous treatment of the War President by the Democratic party dismisses with scorn the sham encomiums rigged up to catch votes. There never was a man in this country, says The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who received such a deluge of foul Democratic abuse as ABRAHAM LINCOLN. From the moment the became a figure in National politics until he was struck down by the bullet of a Democratic assassin he heard from the Democratic assassin he heard from the Democratic party only the language of hatred, contempt and derision. He never announced a purpose or a policy that the Democratic party did not antagonize with a ribaldry of epithet never equaled before or since. The Democratic party has been defined in the constitution, "Oceasa," "Nero," "ignoramus" and "imperialist." Lincoln mever heard from the Democratic party or its leaders during the War a single word not marked by bitter, uncompromising enmity.

As an example, the year 1864, the one preceding the end of the War, may well be cited. The Democratic party held a National Convention that year. It had had a full opportunity to become acquainted with Lincoln's good points, if ready to admit that any existed. That Convention met on August 29th. The battle of Gettysburg had been won. Vicksburg had surrendered. Atlanta and Richmond were besieged. President Lincoln's was within less than eight months of his regie end. It was the last chance of the Democratic of war, during which, under the pretense of a military necessity, or war power higher than the Constitution, the constitution itself had been discounted the material prosperit

TO REPEAL GOEBEL LAW.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 31.—Senator R. M. Jolly, republican, of Breekinridge county, offered a bill in the senate. It provides for a return to the law in operation before the enactment of the Goebel law.
In the house a ten minutes' session was held. The only business transacted was the adoption of a reaolation providing for the appoinmittee of 12 members of the house, to whom all election bills must be referred.
Some of the democratic leaders of the general assembly are having drafted a measure that provides for the outright repeal of the Goebel election law. One of the special fearegistration of the voters of the state instead of in the cities only, as under the present law. The measure will also provide for the printing of the official ballots at state expense and the saving 6f the ballots voted for six months after election. It will provide for non-partisan state and county election hourds.

RESULTS OF IEALOUSY.

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 31.—Shots fired into the dising room at the home of James Barnett, on Howard's creek, killed Mrs. Nancy Barnett, an aged woman's her 12-year-old granddaughter and Mrs. James Bennett. The latter's husband, James Bennett, is being pursued by officers and others, it being charged that he did the shooting. It is said that Bennett was Jealous of Barnett and objected to Mrs. Bennett kinding dinner at Barnett's house-clares that all the shots fired were meant for him, but simply went wild, killing the two women and the girl. The persons killed were seated at the dinner table with Barnett. This part of the country is greatly excited by the Killing, and it is thought Bennett will be arrested within a few hours. It is presumed in Jackson that Mrs. Nancy Barnett is the mother of James Barnett and the Dyceneod girl who was killed was Barnett's Jangster.
